Record-breaking turnout at Fuse's Rise of the Contractor Annual Conference
Member and Supplier Awards Announced

Laguna Niguel, CA [March 7, 2019] – Fuse Alliance, a Member-owned organization of professional, commercial flooring contractors, reported record-breaking attendance of more than 350 people from the United States and Canada at Rise of the Contractor, the organization's annual conference held recently in Orlando. Fuse also announced the recipients of the network's Member and Supplier Awards, which were presented to the winners at the organization's annual conference.

"Flooring projects today are more complicated than ever, and as a result the flooring contractor's role in the supply chain has become more important than ever before. As a fair and impartial network of flooring professionals, our network has the collective strength to elevate our skills and expertise," said Geoff Gordon, executive director for Fuse Alliance. "Themed Rise of the Contractor, our 2019 conference was designed to help our network of talented technicians, reputable suppliers, and first-rate business owners fully utilize the contractors' body of flooring product knowledge and installation expertise to drive success for our entire network."

"Connecting face-to-face with industry peers, recognizing the talent and expertise in our industry, and sharing best practices is truly the value that Fuse provides for our Members and Suppliers. The energy and camaraderie among our members and suppliers was truly humbling and inspirational," said Gordon.
